I worked with Paul Dawson earlier this year for the bus charter for the 404 training.

Chris:

Do you have a contact in Contracts that I can call to discuss this with? It is very time sensitive.

I have made a reservation for a flight to Iliamna, then overflight on the Pebble site, Koktuli R., Mulchatna, Nushagak and lunch in Dillingham. Then return to Anchorage via the Kvichak, Lake Iliamna and the coast of Cook Inlet. Departure is planned for 9:30. We expect to return to Anchorage by 4ish. There are nine seats on the plane, so we have room for a couple more people.
